CEPAL
Economic Commission for Latin America
Inter-Secretariat Working Group on
Water Resources in Latin America
Second Session
Santiago, Chile, 16-17 August 1982

ANNOTATED PROVISIONAL AGENDA

1. Election of the Chairman
2. Adoption of the agenda and organization of work
3. Review and co-ordination of field and regular programme activities in the area of water resources
 - (a) Review of recently approved projects and of projects in the pipeline. The Group will have before it a document prepared by the Secretariat giving information on such projects of some of the different international agencies active in the Latin American region, together with proposals for future action.
 - (b) Co-ordination of regular programme activities. The Group may wish to exchange information on these activities.
 - (c) Information system on relevant aspects of the activities of international agencies in the field of water resources in Latin America. The Group will discuss, on the basis of a revised draft, a final version of the proposed questionnaire, and agreement should be reached as to the periodicity of the survey and its co-ordination with information needs at the global level. It is suggested that the first survey should be made in time to permit the presentation of the results to the CEPAL Sessional Committee on Water at the twentieth session of the Commission in 1984.
4. Arrangements for review of progress in the application of the Mar del Plata Action Plan

The Committee on Natural Resources of the United Nations Economic and Social Council will review progress in the application of the Mar del Plata Action Plan at its eighth session in 1983. The Group will have before it the draft outline of a proposed document for presentation to the Committee on Natural Resources, prepared by the Department of International Economic and Social Affairs. The Economic Commission for Latin America will review regional progress in the application of the Mar del Plata Action Plan at its twentieth session in 1984. The Group will also have before it a draft outline of a proposed document prepared by the Secretariat of CEPAL, including a proposal for a questionnaire to governments.
